There is certainly an integrated framework for the quality assurance of the academic and administrative activities in the college. Our belief is that our college is a family called GYAN GANGA PARIVAR which motivates us to work as a team.

For maintaining the academic and administrative quality, the observations of the Cell is reviewed by the Principal and the senior faculty members. The college authority tries to execute the recommendations of the IQAC.

High quality of academic and administrative activities is ensured through:

- The IQAC meetings are conducted half yearly that would provide for a comprehensive review on student's performance, infrastructure availability and academic conformance.
- Systematic record-keeping and frequent training sessions of the administrative staff to keep them abreast of latest trends, development and technology.
- The performance appraisal system for the faculty is integrated through result analysis of the students at the end of the semester and, wherever necessary, counselling is provided to students.
- Technical staff analyses the hardware and software requirements to formulate the strategy for further action
